
Before the move

Dangerous goods and safety

This flyer sets out what our crew will not move and why, what to keep with you on moving day, and how to get your things ready for the truck. Read it before moving day, and ask us about any item you are not sure of.

01 What we will not move

WE DO NOT MOVE	WHY
Dangerous goods, including gas, fuel, paint, chemicals, fireworks and ammunition	They can leak, catch fire or explode in a closed truck.
Perishable food and anything that needs refrigeration	It spoils or leaks in a closed truck.
Plants	They need light, air and water a closed truck cannot give.
Animals	They need air, water and care a closed truck cannot give.
Firearms	The law controls who can carry them.
Illegal items	The law does not let us carry them.

We may refuse any item that is unsafe, unlawful or unfit to be moved.

Clause 9 of our terms: impactandslick.com/terms.

02 Carry these with you

We do not take responsibility for cash, jewellery, valuables, documents, medication and items of sentimental value. Carry them with you. If you ask us to move any of them and we agree in writing, we move them at your own risk.

03 Getting your things ready

Use strong boxes, tape them shut, do not overfill them and label them clearly.

Drain and disconnect appliances before the job. Tell us about anything that must stay upright.

Clause 10 of our terms: impactandslick.com/terms.
