

Before the move

Evidence of identity

This form is for the owner of goods moving into Australia, who signs the Unaccompanied Personal Effects Statement (B534). The licensed customs broker who clears your goods needs identity documents worth 100 points for the Australian Border Force. Tick the documents you send, sign the form and email it with a copy of each to info@impactandslick.com.

01 Your documents

The Evidence of Identity (EOI) check involves a total of 100 points of identification. This should include one primary identity document (i.e. full birth certificate, Australian Citizenship Certificate or International travel documents such as your passport), one identity document containing a photograph and one document indicating your primary residence.
